

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS

Saturday Club

Miss Minnie White received the Saturday Club, last Saturday afternoon. The weather man was not a bit considerate of new fall frock and frill, yet the ladies of the club were almost all in attendance. A splendid program was given, Mrs. Beam and Miss Nan McBride having papers.

Week-End Party

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fisher, of Union Furnace, and Mr. Fred Ambrose, of Nelsonville, were out-of-town guests at a very pleasing week-end house party given by Mrs. Dr. Smith, Sunday. Quite a number of friends were present and a most elegant dinner served. The occasion was the birth anniversary of the hostess.

Pocksniffs

This very congenial ladies club met Thursday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Dr. Lyons, and celebrated the Hallowe'en season in most fitting style. They renewed their youths in the reminiscence of their younger days when they took part in the showers of corn and cabbage. Mrs. Lyons served supper. Mrs. Spelman of Columbus was a guest.

King's Daughters

This most pleasing social organization of the M. E. Church were entertained on Friday, at the home of Mrs. Otto Iles in the country three miles west of Logan. About thirty members responded to the invitation, as did also their "adopted daughter," Rev. T. B. White. They all had a most joyous time in the country and a big supper. The pleasure of the meeting was enhanced by vocal selections, and a very entertaining talk by Mrs. Beam who attended the convention at Cincinnati.

Temperance Union

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mrs. Tuck Dollison on Hunter Street, Thursday afternoon of last week. The meeting was most enjoyable, the principal feature of the program being the reading of a very interesting report by Mrs. Roy Comly, president of Union. She had been in attendance at the State Convention at Steubenville, and her recital of the work being accomplished by the Union, was encouraging indeed.

The hostess served refreshments. Mrs. G. W. Dollison and Mrs. Bell, were guests.

Sewing Circle

Complimenting the "Ladies Sewing Circle" and the "Young Ladies Circle," Mrs. Charles Lytle, on Saturday evening last, entertained at her most beautiful home on Glenview Heights. The home decorations were most unique. The rooms were in total darkness except here and there gleamed the lights from ghostly, grinning Jack o'lanterns. The guests were received at the door by Master Hazlett Kessler who had donned the spook garb. They were escorted to the upstairs rooms where each was asked to wear a "hobgoblin cap." These were worn during the evening and none were permitted, under of pain spook torture, to speak above a whisper. At the close of the evening, Mrs. Lytle served a good supper.

Tourist Club

This very historical and learned organization of ladies "took a tour" to the home of Mrs. G. C. Weitzel, Thursday afternoon. A very large percent the membership were present, and not a more literary bunch of ladies is often seen. Their subject this year is "Ohio," and they all are enthusiastic for the season's reveling in the scenes and history of this native state. Mrs. John A. Smith read a very interesting paper on "Daniel Boone," and Mrs. B. C. McManigal delighted all with her paper describing the "Pioneers of Ohio." The Weitzel home was most charmingly decorated in yellow chrysanthemums and ferns, and smacked of the season's hour in the Hallowe'en scheme. A most befitting two-course dinner was served, and favors were miniature pumpkins of paper. At the business meeting of the club, Mrs. Han's and Mrs. Williams were elected members. Mrs. Sarah James and Miss Tracy were visitors.

Presbyterian Concert

A rather small but appreciative audience last night enjoyed a splendid program that was furnished by local talent at the Presbyterian church. About $50 realized. Mrs. G. C. Weitzel furnished several choice selections with her graphophone that were enjoyed by all present. The male quartette pleased everybody by their singing of three numbers, being assisted in one of them by Miss Robbin Rochester, Miss Mame Campbell and Nell McManigal were at their best in their playings of "Merry Wives of Windsor," by Melnotti.

Daisy Watkins Ferguson appeared next and was heartily applauded for her splendid effort, the applause being sufficient to have justified an encore. Mr. Weaver, who has become such a factor in the musical life of our town, that no program is complete without him, rendered two selections in a manner that won for him hearty applause. All in all, it was a program of high merit, and was heartily enjoyed by all present. Logan has every reason to be proud of its musical talent. A social hour then followed, Mrs. John A. Smith and Mrs. Will Strentz pouring the coffee, and Misses Sadie McCray and Jessie McManigal serving the cocoa. The proceeds will be used by the ladies of the congregation in paying for furnishings of this church.

Good Way to Boom a Town.

In a certain town a much envied advertiser was brought to task by a friend to have him explain the secret of his popularity and success. Said he: "I figure my advertising is going to cost me so much a year most of which is accomplished through the columns of our local paper. When I have a good customer and feel that his trade warrants a rebate, I ask him if he is taking the town paper; if not I pay for the paper one year to be sent to his address. It helps to support the paper and gives encouragement to the editor to do his best to bring the town to the front. It helps to make our town the main trading center. Is it not worth the price of a paper to know my customers are reading the advertisement I am paying to have run in that paper? I get a great many to take the paper by praising it to the people who come in my store. I consider every time I gain a subscriber to our own town paper it is another customer to read my advertisements and come to my place of business to trade.

Ohio Man Praises Texas

Mr. T. J. Leysen, formerly of Logan, Ohio, writes: "On October 1st I arrived at Denton, Texas, to take charge of the Springdale Jersey Farm, and to say that I am delighted with Texas, with Denton county, with the diversified interests, the climate, the fine pastures and alfalfa hay farms, the finest artesian water in the world and the natural home of the Jersey cow, the educational advantages of Denton, with her two State institutions and a population of about 7,000, and a white enrollment in the school of about 3,000, would be a mild expression of my appreciation.

"I found Springdale Jersey Herd headed by the great bull Golden Fern's Knight, a son of Golden Fern's Lad and out of Flying Fox's Sweet Daisy, one of the best daughters of Flying Fox. He is also a half-brother of Stockwell, that the Lewisiana Farm paid $11,500 for at the Cooper sale last May. Mr. Ponder gives great credit to Mr. A. M. Bowman for producing Golden Fern's Knight, and to Mr. Lewis for his good judgement in buying his half-brother, Stockwell, even at the long price of $11,500.

"But Springdale Jersey Farm is also the home of the famous Annie Gorman, who is beyond doubt the best Jersey cow ever produced in Texas. She has been passed on in the show-ring by Messrs. Richardson, Gettys, Sisson, Weston, Graves, Berry, Spann and others, and was never beaten in her class, but always brought out the blue and purple ribbons. She is now in her prime and at her best.

"Springdale Jersey Farm also has 92 other good ones, beside Shropshire sheep, Berkshire swine, Mammoth Bronze turkeys and other poultry, and is destined to become one of the great farms of the country. Come to Texas and engage in the fine stock business."

—Jersey Bulletin.

Mr. Leysen took several premiums on cows and calves, first premium on butter, out of sixty-one entries, among them the State University, beating them by 1 1/2 points. He is shipping all his butter to Dallas and getting 40c per pound. Mr. Leysen expects to install a cheese plant shortly. They are now cutting their corn, alfalfa and putting in winter oats and wheat. Mr. Leysen's Logan friends are glad to hear of his success and will expect a young jersey, pound of butter or a cheese for Xmas.
